Greetings from Your New Secretary

Hi, my name is Stacy Hauser. I am happy to begin this chapter of working with you and your congregational family. I anticipate meeting some of you during my office hours, and others I may only get to know through email or phone calls. However our paths cross, I am here to help the best that I can!

I grew up in Pittsburgh, PA, then attended and graduated from Penn State in 1994. I followed my dreams of living at the beach and moved to Hilton Head Island, SC. I met my husband Troy while I was a retail manager for Eddie Bauer and he was serving his second enlistment in the Marine Corps at the nearby Naval Air Station in Beaufort.

After Troy's enlistment was completed, we married and Troy got a job with Boeing. This has taken us from San Diego to St. Louis, and now the Philly area. Along the way I have worked as a secretary for a United Church of Christ near St. Louis and for Red Clay Creek Presbyterian Church.

We have been in Newark for almost 13 years and have two elementary-aged boys. This is my first job since my oldest was born over 9 years ago, so I am older, slower and now have to wear reading glasses! But having worked for churches both small and large, things are familiar for me. I'm glad to be here and thankful for the opportunity!

Members and Friends at Home

Each week a member or friend of the church at home will be highlighted. Greeting cards are always appreciated

Ramona and Janice Miller

Ramona and her late husband, Don, joined Calvary back in the late 50's, with their young daughter, Janice. In these later years, Ramona hasn't been able to attend services regularly. Janice has had serious health issues and requires most of Ramona's time. Both are still very interested in Calvary and keep up with the news. Cards and phone calls are very welcome.

Peace Vigil, October 4, 2017

Calvary was blessed to be able to host a peace vigil last week. About 75 people, including a few dozen from the community and other churches, attended. An article about the event appeared in the Newark Post.

Six of our middle school students attended Breakaway Middle School Retreat at Northbay Adventure Camp, October 6-8, 2017

American Baptist
Women's MINISTRIES

Women's Sunday is October 22, 2017. Women of Calvary will be planning and leading the worship service that day.

University of Delaware's "Vision a Capella" will perform during worship October 29

A newly completed Habitat for Humanity home in Wilmington, whose foundation was partially sponsored by Calvary several years ago, will be dedicated this Thursday, Oct. 12. Pastor Corey will be presenting a Bible to the new homeowner. The presentation and dedication will take place at 11:00am at N. Walnut St. & E. 14th St. in Wilmington. Calvary members are invited to attend. Read on for more about the homeowner:

Latayvia Terrell lives with her two children in her parents' home. Because of the overcrowded home, her fiancé was unable to live with them. A Habitat home gave them back the opportunity to live as a family under one roof. When Latayvia heard she was approved for a Habitat home she screamed of excitement, "Thank you so much! I've been praying for this." Ever since the news of her Habitat home, her outlook on the future has become much brighter compared to how she felt when the idea of homeownership seemed out of reach. She has worked for Walgreens since June of 2006.

Fall Festival & Trunk or Treating

March with Calvary in Newark's Annual Halloween Parade

Meet Sunday, October 29th at 2:30 p.m. at George Read Park across from Newark High School!
Then join us at Calvary afterward for our Fall Festival from 4-6!

On Friday, October 6, Friendship House celebrated its 30 year anniversary at Christ Church Christiana Hundred. Attendees heard testimonies of former clients who turned their life around, and founding director Bill Perkins was honored.
